

SHAVED HEADS SELL SHEDS

When Aaron Bates, Lee Doyle, Simon Black, Paul Barber, Jon Gleeson, Mark Clifford, Nick Witheriff and Ed Bull (director and instigator) heard that the boys from the Milton office could make a difference they wasted no time in lining up to lose their locks, deciding to 'be brave and shave' on March 14.

In Australia someone is diagnosed with leukemia, lymphoma or melanoma every hour of every day. Currently, more than 30,000 Australians are living with one of these cancers but only four out of 10 adults survive.

The money CBRE raised for the World's Greatest Shave directly supports patients and their families.

Well done to the lads from industrial, they did a fantastic job and managed to raise a total of $2055 for a great cause.

ENTOURE

CBRE's own Greg Cohen took part in the inaugural Entoure Cycle Classic this year to benefit the Day of Difference Foundation (headed by Ron Delezio). The event was a grueling three-day cycle ride starting at Hornsby, Sydney and covered 400+ kms through the Hunter Valley.

The ride managed to raise over $300,000 for the Day of Difference Foundation and assist in the purchase of state-of-the-art audiovisual equipment for the Pediatric Simulation Centre at Westmead Children's Hospital.

Greg says that the 400 kms was achievable provided you were fit! "The most difficult part was on the third day. With 250 kms down, we hit the 150 km uphill ride home." After the last leg at the Hawkesbury Bridge the riders ended up in a club in Hornsby for a BBQ and the Sophie Delezio presentation.

The Delezio family have become major fundraisers and activists for victims who, like their daughter Sophie, have suffered near fatal burns. Sophie sustained third-degree burns to 85% of her body, was hospitalised for several weeks and lost both of her legs. "It was an extremely moving event with a powerful force, particularly Ron's speech," says Greg

The group included senior property and finance people on the ride from companies such as AMP, Goodman, Challenger and Allco.

Greg highly recommends the event and is hoping to support it again this time next year with a CBRE team.
